Frommer's Venice Day By Day

Synopsis

With so much to see and do in this utterly unique city, the traveler urgently needs advice on how to allocate their time--what to see, what to do, in the one-to-four days that most tourists devote to this Queen of the Adriatic ("the most beautiful ever built by man" -- New York Times). One of our most talented authors sets out to supply that guidance, in a compact, 184-page guide that is profusely illustrated with four-color photographs and maps.

Stephen Brewer has been writing travel guides for almost three decades. As an editor and writer, he has focused on European coverage for such magazines as Esquire, Connoisseur and Geo. He has written several previous guides for Frommer's and Insight, as well as authoring Beautiful Small Coastal Towns for Rizzoli. Stephen resides in Manhattan.

good book to be able to carry in your luggage or purse for the day.

i found it helpful. my main "issue" was with the map. one needs better information because venice is a curious place. one needs more specific street indentifications. i did purchase a map to go with this book. I should do well by combining the two.

Item as described, fast shipping time.

I love the Frommer's Day by Day books.
