PreSchool-Grade 1 --Dancing dinosaurs leap off the pages of a book and suddenly appear in the school library. From there, the playful green friends peek and sneak into a classroom and onto the playground while creating a swirl of excitement for the school librarian and a boy who follow their escapades. The bold, bouncy illustrations and one-sentence rhyming text make this book a concrete purchase. It is perfect for beginner readers. --Tracy Bell, Eastway Elementary School, Durham, NC Copyright © Reed Business Information, a division of Reed Elsevier Inc. PreS-K. A group of dinosaurs jump out of a book and sneak into school, causing chaos in school and on the playground. When the final bell rings, they leap back onto the page. Preschoolers may need help understanding how the dinosaurs got into the classroom, but the farce, which unfolds in simple, rhyming text, and the exuberant pictures of green monsters, "jiggling and wiggling" with paint and glue, will help take away scary feelings about starting school for the first time. As part of the Step into Reading series, this short book makes school and reading fun. Hazel

Perfect for my 4-year old who has just started reading. Pages rhyme, which she likes. The books are relatively short and the pages are one or two lines. Perfect for new readers with easy words and relatively few difficult words.

Cute book and short. My 5 year old loves it. Bought it for him for his birthday/going to kindergarten.
