Featuring a variety of pet projects with tips for achieving realistic results, this dynamic book includes easy-to-understand, step-by-step instructions for creating beautiful pet portraits in oil and acrylic. Artist Lorraine Gray provides useful information on the basic tools and techniques, as well as rendering fur, feathers, and hair. You'll also find tips on painting eyes, noses, ears, and whiskers. Packed with pointers, inspiration, and encouragement, Oil and Acrylic: Pet Portraits is the perfect resource for those who desire to capture their own pets on canvas or want to render professional pet portraits for a living.

Lorraine Gray is a pet portrait artist, working in pastels, oil, and acrylic, in Berkshire, England.

Lorraine's love for art and animals started as a young girl, when she spent many hours painting her beloved pet dog and cat. Her pet portraits hang in the USA, Japan, Canada, Switzerland, Malta, France, Holland, and Dubai, as well as the UK. Visit www.pastelpetportraits.co.uk

Very large soft covered book with large beautiful pet pictures including dogs, cats, birds, horses, and rabbits. Nice oil and acrylic sketching and painting descriptions and instructions especially for coloring and painting fur and feathers and pets facial features. Uses a step by step approach but not quite as detailed as I would like. A good basic starter book. Doesn't include all the different breeds.

Good book to learn how to paint fur. Just what I was looking for. Walter Foster books usually are helpful. Lorraine gray is an amazing artist of pet portraits . She explains her lessons well.

It wasn't what I was expecting. It's pages are large with color photos which is nice, but not a lengthy book by any means. But what I was disappointed with are the instructions. I needed more than what was provided.

Excellent gift.

Beautiful book with great, easy to follow instructions. I would recommend this to anyone who wants to start painting animals.

not at all what I thought it was gonna be, I thought it would give step by step drawing instructions....it's just pictures of dogs

Fabulous!

I haven't had the time to start trying to paint fur as yet. But I read the book and it explains and shows samples and pictures of how to do it that I know I will be able to do. I haven't done too much painting of fur; but I think this book will help me alot.
