Customer Reviews

Lesley Chamberlain is a writer and linguist specializing in the food and cooking of Eastern Europe.

Catherine Atkinson is a trained Cordon Bleu cook who worked in various hotels and restaurants before turning to publishing, creating recipes and styling food. Trish Davies is a food specialist and stylist with an impressive career in magazine and book publishing.

The photographs are pretty and the organization and types of recipes is nice. However, we have tried 2 of the recipes so far and both have turned out to be flops :-/. The potato salad recipe is not even German potato salad, just a basic, what I would consider, "American" recipe. There seem so be more surrounding countries' recipes than actual German recipes. Not quite what we were hoping for...

Excellent!

Good Book, Reasonable Price and fast Shipping. Great Purchase.

There are some great recipes in this cook book!

Excellent

There are very few German recipes in this cookbook. It is a terrific collection of Czech, Hungarian, and other recipes, but it is seriously mis-titled.

excellent book
