Customer Reviews

We stumbled upon this guide before a recent trip to Montreal and found it to be amazingly helpful. Great suggestions for local beers and for interesting types of poutine. The main thing we liked about it was that there were also lots of suggestions for types of foods and off-the-beaten-path restaurants that we didn't see in any of the other guides we checked out. Needless to say, I'd definitely buy another of these guides.

I was in Montreal for a bachelor party and the organizing crew was more focused on strip clubs than restaurants. But a number of the attendees were excited about sampling the food Montreal is known for. This guide gave us the best bagels, the best Parisian bistro, the best pastrami, and the best place to buy maple syrup. The bachelor and all the other guys were happy to make the most of our days and not just the nights!
