Super Sweet Girls

Synopsis

In his brand new opus, Super Sweet Girls, Mikhail Paramonov has broadened his palette to include a highly provocative range of color. His beautiful models are dressed simply in rose panties and socks or flimsy transparent skirts that barely cover their small breasts and smooth skin.

Paramonov's theme is that of Eros, the God of Love, who kindles the desires of men and spurs them to action.

Customer Reviews

To See absolutely flawless beauty, this book is just perfect. I have most of Mikhail Paramonov photo books, The photo are mesmerizing , The Tile "Super Sweet Girls" is just perfect to match the beauty that is found. I truly recommend this photo book to any collector. Very Nicely Done

We are witnessing a maturation in Mikhail Paramonov's work; demonstrated so well in his latest publication, Super Sweet Girls. This is his 7th book published through German publisher Edition-Reuss (and his 10th overall) so it's not surprising we are seeing more finely crafted imagery. But it's impressive that, given the heady success of his previous works, he's been able to stay so on-track and true to his original vision of the female nude. His work exemplifies beauty, purity, and innocence invigorated with robust sexual undercurrents. His subjects are youthful, classically beautiful, and free of the grotesque accouterments of modern, feminist-inspired ruin (piercing's, tattoos, and shaved heads).Paramonov's photography in Super Sweet Girls shows a refinement in composition, model selection, symbolic use of color, and most importantly, adornment. His use of socks, stockings, and underwear to accessorize his subjects is a potent element in many images. This is a commanding body of work celebrating a powerful archetype that most will find irresistible.
