TESLA For Beginners: Who Was Nikola Tesla? The Genius Who Gave Us Light

Synopsis

This is a popular non-fiction biography of Nikola Tesla, the great inventor, that is good read for anyone from 12 to 112 years old. It is a story of the genius whose time has come. He belongs more to this century than perhaps any other scientist of the past and yet we do not know much about him. All the electric devices we use owe something to him. He also had a vision of the world we live in now in 21st century.

Customer Reviews

Very nice non-technical introduction to Tesla for everyone!

I really loved reading this book. It is great read for entire family, my kids loved it. Think it's a fun read for all children. My sincere recommendation.

Life of Nikola Tesla, the most intriguing, interesting and genial scientist, written by the brilliant writer, Maya Herman Sekulic, must read!

Long awaited palatable summary of Tesla's life and work. Very well done ! Congratulations to Maya Herman! Milan Jojkic, Toronto

We love Tesla, this was a great book to read with my children (9 years and 14 years). They both loved it!

Great book. Highly recommended to learn something we all take for granted!!!
