Customer Reviews

Jody Revenson has written extensively about the Harry Potter films. Her most recent books are Harry Potter: The Creature Vault, Harry Potter: Magical Places from the Films, and Harry Potter: The Character Vault.

Bought as a gift for someone. Was surprised that it was larger than I thought. I just didn't read the description well... was a superior quality than anticipating!

Really terrible quality of manufacturing. Get some glue ready.

Not what I expected but cool nonetheless

What a cool book. A must have for HP fans.

Love this product. What a fun & different addition to my HP collection!

Very nice

love it

I've really enjoyed building these Incredibuilds model kits, they're pretty easy to put together but it's a satisfying way to spend half an hour and I love having the finished models to decorate my bookcases with. I think the Golden Snitch was probably the most awkward of the models to put together, most of it is very straightforward and super easy but when you get to step 11 you'll probably have to gently use a hammer to get that spike to go through the rest of the model so younger builders may need assistance at that point. This is probably the model that would be easiest to paint after building, the others I'd recommend decorating the pieces before together but there aren't so many awkward angles here so you can easily add paint to the finished model if you want to. I still think they look fine without any decoration though so I'm not going to be in a rush to paint mine. The Snitch model stands about 11cm tall at the highest point and the wingspan is 23cm tip to tip so it's not too large but looks nice on display. As with all of these kits the hardback book is only about 30 pages long but it includes lots of information about how they filmed the Quidditch matches for the movies. Everything from how they designed the costumes and decided on the shape of the brooms to how they filmed the actors against blue screens so they could add the CGI background later on. There are lots of pictures from all different production stages and even though it's only a quick read Harry Potter fans are sure to find it interesting. The only Harry Potter model set I'm missing now is the Aragog one which I'm actually a little reluctant about buying - do I really need a giant spider on my bookshelves? I definitely want to start collecting the Fantastic Beasts ones though, the only two available right now are a Niffler and the Swooping Evil which both look like pretty cool sets to build and I wouldn't be surprised if more are released later down the line.
