Customer Reviews

I love the new trend of adapting older artwork to new books, in a way that maintains the integrity of the original artist. There's nothing cheap or cheesy about this little Andy Warhol book. As one page says, it's 'so sweet'! It's very well made and unlike many board books there are a lot of pages. My daughter is one and she loves turning the pages of board books, and I love the art and simple words (makes it easier to keep up as she rapidly turns the pages). There is a surprise mirror at the end that I wasn't expecting, and I love that too! I'm really pleased with this purchase.

Lifelong Warhol fan who had never seen this book, very glad I bought it, will purchase again. Totally sweet and beautiful. Great baby or young reader gift for art lovers.

Beautiful Andy Warhol sketches with "conversation" cues for readers to talk about with their toddlers.

Cute, cute, cute. Love this book. Even has a mirror on the last page

I bought this book when my son was first born cuz I wanted to have books with early arts exposure around. I've pulled it off the shelf a bunch of times in the last few months, but I don't think we've made it through this book yet. It's pretty wah-wah underwhelming overall. I'll keep it on the shelf. Maybe one day it'll grow more interesting to him.

Lovely little book.

This is a surprising and offbeat little book for those looking for something a little different. Well made and durable and excellent for inquisitive minds. Don't worry about the Warhol factor - there's nothing weird about it. Just colorful, fun and whimsical.

Got this for my son when he was 5 months old now at 17 months he still loves this book, will carry it around and look at the pictures. He will actually fuss when he wants it read to him. So cute! Baby approved!
