Paul A. Rabalais has practiced law exclusively as an estate planning attorney since 1991. He is recognized as a specialist in estate planning and administration by the Louisiana State Bar Association. He and his law firm have served thousands of Louisiana estate planning clients. He has appeared on numerous television programs and has been interviewed for news paper articles pertaining to estate planning. He also hosted his own weekly radio talk show, Your Estate Matters.

This book is loaded with information that all residents of Louisiana should know. Thanks to the information and resources in this book we were able to plan our estate exactly the way we wanted and feel confident our wishes will be backed by state laws.

Very good, very basic guide to estate and gift planning and taxation in Louisiana, which is different from every other state in the union. If you live in Louisiana and don't understand usufruct, read this book. It's an awesome tool for Louisiana residents in that usufruct has a huge advantage over a Qtip trust that estate planners in the other 49 states use.

This book gives a very comprehensive coverage of Louisiana Estate which is unique to any other state. Louisiana is governed by Napoleonic codes in this area. The book is written so that anyone can plan and understand how to direct their Estate. Many examples and suggestions are given to either do it yourself or where to seek advice on the subject. EXCELLENT INFORMATION!!!!

contained up to date info on estate planning, wills, trusts that are specific to the state of Louisiana. Easy to follow the text, written in plain language with legal terms defined for the reader.
