Customer Reviews

John Walk has been in the antiques business for over twenty years. This is his ninth volume on Fenton art glass with Schiffer Publishing.

I thought that there would be more updates on the Fenton Hobnail in this book and more pictures is why I bought this book.. I also purchased The Big Book of Fenton-- 1940-1970 which I feel is much better since the pictures are more clearer and the detail in the description. I have two great books but would recommended the second book more because of the detailed pictures...

Good choice for me. More info than I expected.

I find this book a great one for beginning collectors.
