Great product.

YES!

Beyond vocal selections it offer chords for cheaters like me. Easy to play

This book totally did the job. All the songs and well written. Songs that are duet or ensemble in the 1968 film are written that way in the book - one of them (I'd Do Anything) I just used for a concert with two students. I'll be using this book again in the future.

My son was part of the school performance. He loves singing and playing the songs.

I am using this score to guide my elementary music kids in the public schools to sing a performance of songs from Oliver. It's a terrific representation of the songs from the movie/musical.

I now get to hear the strains of this music in my home and I love it!! Some of the best music ever written.

If you have a party and do a sing-a-long, this is a must. All these songs are from the heart and fun.
