Customer Reviews

Nobody covers the world like Lonely Planet.' --New York Post, May 2004

I purchased this guide and the DK Eyewitness Malaysia/Singapore guide about a month before I went on my trip to KL. I just returned last night after spending a week there. Let me just say that the LP guide is awesome! It is packed full of all the info you could possibly want to know and it also includes maps of the different areas of KL as well as transit maps. It describes in detail the different things to do in KL, where to stay (as well as phone numbers) and where to eat. A lot of restaurants in KL don't give many details on their menus so you're not always sure what exactly you're eating, but this KL guide includes a food glossary so you can quickly look up most foods. I found it very helpful because I have issues with trying to eat something when I have no clue what it is, even if it is delicious. As far as shopping, it did include information on all the major shopping areas in KL. I carried this guide with me everywhere I went. I used this book a whole lot more than my DK guide, but I would still buy both. If you're planning a trip to KL, I wholeheartedly recommend this guide!

good reference

I bought the blue cover Kuala Lumpur, Melaka, Penang... the Lonely Planet latest edition. It arrived in perfect condition and was just what I wanted. I am quite happy about this purchase! Marie ,

It happens so, that I visited all the cities described in the book. It's very informative and not very long. The content is great, provided you read it thoroughly. The chapters are short enough to be read during trips between the cities. In fact I took tours in every city and most of the tour guides gave you the same information. Love the guide!
