Synopsis

Seventeen-year-old Violet Fairdale has one job: protect humans from dangerous fae...It's a job she's good at—until the cute guy whose life she just saved follows her back into the dangerous world of magic. Now Vi has broken Guild law, landing herself in a whole lot of trouble. The last thing she wants to do is spend any more time with the guy who got her into this mess, but the Guild requires that she return Nate to his home and make him forget about the magical world he's discovered. Easy, right? Not when you factor in evil faeries, plenty of mystery and intrigue, and inconvenient feelings of the romantic kind. Customer Reviews

The Faerie Guardian-This book is amazing total what i expected it to be a great faerie story with lots of twists and turns. You never know what to expect, you think you know what going to happen and then nope author pulls a plot twist our of no where. I am total fan hooked and will be picking up the rest of this series.The Faerie Prince- This is the second book in this amazing series. Unlike the first the book their is not as much action in this one as Violet is coming to the end of her training and is set on one last task before she graduates and is ready to start her life a full fledge guardian. I really like the way that we get to see more of the relationship between Ryn and Violet develop. I love the way that Morgan has a way of capturing the readers interest and keeping it from page one until the end, and then making you not only need the next book to the series, but want to go barging up to her door and demand she give it to you right now. If I didn't have the third book, I would do just that.The Faerie War- This is the third book in the series and the emotional turmoil from beginning to end in this book makes me want to cry, scream and eventually jump for joy. Morgan pours her very heart and soul into this third book and i almost feared this was it no more but oh joy we get another story we get to see where it all goes, where the pain and joy goes. I can not wait for book 4

As I was reading the story I got really attached to the characters(like I always do) and that was a small part of the reason why I felt that these books tugged at readers' emotions. There are books that when something doesn't go the characters' way, I'm sad, but in this series the author did a very good job at introducing the characters and describing their hardships that I got more attached to them than I usually do with other books/characters. That's why I was more than sad all the times Violet almost died even though the logical part of my brain told me that the author wouldn't kill off her main character. And of course the relationship with Ryn and Violet, even though it was a bit cliché(long time rivals find themselves start to be attracted to each other), was the highlight of the book(for me anyway). The minute their rivalry was revealed I put all my money on them ending me up together because, like I said, I saw it coming since it is a bit cliché.I have to admit, half the time I was wondering why I kept reading because when I'm really into a book, like I was into these, let's just say I'm loud, very open about my opinions, and I get particularly colorful with my word choice. Then the other half the time I couldn't imagine my life if I hadn't bought these books, even though when I did the cheap part of my brain was doing the calculations and saying "You can't buy all these books, you've spent the nought money this week already!" But I don't really listen to that part of my brain when it comes to books. Ok I'm going to cut this off before I REALLY start rambling. All in all I thought the books were, well, for lack of a better word, amazing and anyone who hasn't read this series yet is severely missing out.

This series is fantastic! I started by reading the free first book and almost immediately knew I would have to buy the rest of the series. I love watching Violet grow and change.. and then having a chance to start all over and redefine herself. If only we all had those choices!! adore the extras after each book where we get to read from some of the other character's perspective. Rachel Morgan is a very talented writer and I look forward to reading more of her books!

I'm a big fantasy fan & was surprised at how much I loved this ya series. It had action, love triangles, and so many creative twists and turns. The writing was great & I read all 3 books in 3 days because I couldn't put it down! Would definitely recommend this series!

I absolutely LOVE these books. They randomly popped up on my Facebook feed a while ago and I'm so glad I gave it a chance. The second book is my favorite, and admittedly I was disappointed when I found out these three books were the end of Violets story (I just can't get enough of Ryn!) But I love the writing style and the development of the story. This is definitely something you don't want to miss if you're into romance and magic!

I love this series! I can't wait for the next book in the series when I finish the current ones! You will be hooked from the first page of the first book!!!! I am not a young person reading these books either, but the storylines, the characters, and their detailed pasts are amazing!! Rachel Morgan, I love your imagination and your way of writing! Thank you for getting me interested in reading again!

Creepy Hollow is a world I'd love to get lost in!! A very well-written and addictive series, I highly recommend!

Lots of fun - good & bad fairies battling it out.
