Customer Reviews

Really good product to learn which places to visit when you arrive Venice. Is difficult to get a complete idea about the city. I see better products from Lonely Planet.

It's a nice little travel guide for my upcoming trip to Italy. I will be using it to plan out my time here.

The most important piece of information was missing, the map of Venice was ripped off.

It was a great guide right up until the time that I lost it. What an incredible place. We were there on the "Blood Moon". Check out the pic.

I found this book difficult to use as it didn't give a overview of Venice and it's neighborhoods/islands. I never got a good "sense" of Venice from the book. Perhaps if you knew the city you would find it useful.

I reviewed my plan for the day using the book and took the map from book to guide me through my day. It was great to figure out where to eat, what I wanted to see and the high points not to miss.

not as detailed as the big book, but in a good way...great for walking around the city and checking the highlight for a short trip. The map was very handy too.

The guide book allowed us to be very efficient, at the same time to explore sights and locations of the beaten path. Precise and brief descriptions made it easy to learn about a new city. The detailed maps allowed great walking tours.
