A Dragon Moves In

Synopsis

Rabbit and Hedgehog are having a picnic when... RUMBLE! CRACK! The egg Rabbit is sitting on hatches. Out comes a baby dragon! Rabbit and Hedgehog take him home. They have lots of fun... until the baby dragon starts to grow. And Grow. And GROW! The artwork rendered in oil on board gives a classic touch to this appealing story.

Customer Reviews

Great little book about friends and how to take care of the friendship in spite of a few problems. Very nice

The illustrations were well done, but the text just didn't flow for me, making the story a series of starts and stops, that really took away any magical quality the story might have capitalized on.

We enjoyed the illustrations and thought the characters were adorable but the story was ordinary. There was nothing unique other than the fact that a hedgehog, rabbit and dragon were a family. The plot was too simplistic for a 4 year old and left little to discuss upon completion.

Via Skype my toddler grandson told me all about the book - "He got too big!" All smiles

This story appealed to my son, but it is not the most exciting story you'll ever read. In his words "its a very good story".

A big hit with my four year old friend who is crazy for dragons. Classic Golden Book, a childhood memory

It was perfect for my son & daughter in law. They have their first child who loves to be read to. When children come into your home, it is like a dragon moving in!!

I liked the story. Wish I could have seen more in preview so I could determine if reading level was appropriate for my 8 year olds. He liked the book.
