Customer Reviews

Really like the advice about putting a doorstop in a hotel door, When I was in a hotel in Vienna, the staff let themselves in to my room twice with their key to do an afternoon cleaning. They knocked several times, but since I was taking a nap I didn't get up and answer the door. If I had read your book first and taken doorstops with me, I'd have been left undisturbed. Also like the advice on not going with anyone when you get there. I once went with a guy to an inexpensive hotel from a train station in Italy. I was very trusting and he was trustworthy - just worked for the hotel and brought business over to the hotel from the train station. But the situation could have been not on the level and my trust was ill placed. Thanks for all the good advice!

An excellent, short guide packed with valuable tips for any traveler, but especially women. I particularly appreciated Paige's "real world" stories and her personal travel tips. I travel frequently and still learned a lot! I highly recommend this book for any female traveler!

An interesting easy read that provided some great ideas that all of us ladies probably need when we are traveling. One of the best ideas was to put a door jam in the door of a hotel room for safety. Love that idea and will be using it in the future.

This is a brilliant book! As a seasoned European traveler- this book taught me many lessons that I would never have even thought of. I would say that anyone heading across the pond could really use the author's advice!

Excellent advice for todays traveling ladies ! Quick arrival

A must read for women. If you plan on traveling, read this for tips on everything from booking your hotel room to packing your suit case.

Practical advice and great tips for women traveling both solo and in groups! I great go to guide and must download before heading on your next trip!
