â œA treasure trove of nostalgic postcards, advertisements, brochures, signs, flyers and souvenirs from the early days of the â ^big fiveâ ™ commercial springs: Silver Springs, Wakulla Springs, Rainbow Springs, Weeki Wachee Spring and Homosassa Springs. . . . Whether you remember the Florida springs from your youth or you are seeing pictures of them for the first time, you will want to visit or revisit them after reading Remembering Florida Springs.â •â •St. Augustine Record

TIM HOLLIS is the author of several books, including Selling the Sunshine State: A Celebration of Florida Tourism Advertising, The Minibook of Minigolf, and Wish You Were Here: Classic Florida Motel and Restaurant Advertising. Â

If you have the same author's "Glass Bottom Boats & Mermaid Tails: Florida's Tourist Springs" book, there's little if anything new here. I'd say try to find that book first, then if you cannot get that one then I do recommend this. I've read many of Mr. Hollis' books and have enjoyed all of them.

This was a huge hit with my husband at Christmas. He kept showing me pictures of things he remembered from his childhood.

Cute little book. Would like to see a book on the lesser known springs that are quickly disappearing.
