Customer Reviews

This collection of old-fashioned Westerns from e-artnow consists of 150 public domain works (meaning they are freely available individually for those who wish to obtain them that way). They are all contained within e-artnow's even larger bundle of 175 novels and short stories titled CALL OF THE WILD WEST. Therefore, if you like such old fare, you may wish to skip this one to get the larger one instead. Like the larger set, this one (thankfully) has an active TOC, but (disappointingly) it, too, is disorganized; usually an author's short stories are grouped together, but often the novels of any given author are scattered throughout the TOC in no particular order. This makes locating all a particular author's books, or pinpointing a specific one, something of a chore. The tales are by authors recognizable to fans of this genre; some are famous, great, and truly classic, while others are obscure, loquacious, and dull. The larger bundle referred to above -- which, by the way, is a VERY slow download -- will have more items within it that may be potentially to your liking, but that also means more titles to scroll through in its equally disorganized TOC. Downloading this bundle pretty much depends upon how strongly you desire to obtain the particular stories it contains (as listed in the Kindle Store blurb), whether or not you already own most (if not all) of them via previous acquisitions, and if you are willing to put up with a poorly organized TOC.
