This is a really wonderful coloring book filled with many Christian-based designs. The coloring book has 50 pages of designs and additional bookmarks, tags, and cards that you can color and cut out for your use. The designs are by Amylee Weeks and have a beautiful hand-drawn sketch look to them. The Bible quotes are taken from a variety of translations: Holy Bible, New International Version NIV, Holy Bible, New Living Translation, and New King James Version. I really appreciate that almost every page in the coloring book has a Christian message. I've purchased other books that have a lot of coloring but only a few pages devoted to Christian principles. I like those books but I have wanted books more like this one, too. In these designs, there are three styles: 1) design with a Bible quote; 2) designs with an inspirational message and a Bible quote in smaller font to support the message; and finally, 3) a design with an inspirational message. The book is very well made with a cover made of hardboard. The designs are printed on one side only of heavyweight perforated paper. The binding is at the top and is spiral bound. I really appreciate this binding as you can flip to any page and have access to the entire design. The cover then becomes a portable "desk" which allows you to color easily when on-the-go. A few of the designs extend beyond the perforations, which is a little frustrating. I won't remove these from the book as I will lose a bit of the design if I do. This could be easily solved in future additions to this series by sizing the design to fit below the perforations. All of my alcohol-based markers bled through but none of my water-based ones did. Gel pens worked well and did not bleed through or leave shadows at the back. Coloring pencils worked nicely as well and behaved according to their type of lead (soft/hard core.) You can put a piece of card stock or chipboard below the page you are working on to keep ink from leaking through. I will list the coloring mediums I tested in the comments area for anyone interested.

The spiral at the top of the coloring book got bent a bit, but didn't change how much I love this book. It has the wonderful sayings that I repeat to myself often. Plus the gift tags and bookmarks are totally cute! This isn't many pages but what it has is wonderful. I could totally see myself giving one of my coloring pages as a gift, maybe frame it up nice. They are that good.

I love this coloring book!! I have probably over 200 coloring books and this is one of my favorites!! Beautiful pictures, love coloring them!! I love that it's spiral bound on the top and the perforations make tearing the pages out easy

I can not explain how much I LOVE these coloring books! The top spiral bound allows me to keep all the pages attached and color them in the book without the weird crease in the middle of the page! I have all three that are currently out and color one page a day. I use fine point sharpies to color them, the pages are nice and thick so there is absolutely no bleed through! The size of the pages are perfect for framing. I can't wait for more to come out! I will definitely be buying more!!

As an avid collector of adult coloring books, this one is not a favorite-not enough to color on each page and too much repetition!!!

my 84 yo mother loves this! Large illustrations and easy for her to see and color. She loves this and awards her friends and family with beautiful finished pages! Great gift with hours/ days/ weeks of fun!!

This lovely coloring book provides many thought provoking themes to ponder while coloring. The spiral binding is a VERY nice touch to keep the pages from becoming bent or tattered. I've enjoyed this particular book so much that I've given it as gifts to some of the close girlfriends.

I think this is a great adult Christian-based coloring book. The pictures are delightful, and the messages are beautiful. I like the fact that it's spiral-bound and lays (lies?) flat when opened. The bookmarks and gift tags are fun little extras!
