Let God Be God: Give Control To The Only One Who Can Set You Free

Synopsis

More and more we are told to pursue the life we want, but what about the life God wants you to live? When our desires and God's will don't match up, we often choose to move God from the center of our life to just being an "important part" of it. This book will challenge you to think differently about what it means to have faith. It asks you to set yourself aside, make God your true focus, and trust God to truly be God in your life. The proceeds from this book are being donated to support the Healing and Reconciliation work being done with First Nations People through The Kenora Fellowship Centre (Anamiewigummig) and Winnipeg Inner City Missions (Anishanabe).

Customer Reviews

This book is easy to read and understand, due to direct concise content. The chapters are short and the author actually makes you think about the reality of your relationship with God. I realized I didn't allow God into specific areas of my life and I needed to trust Him more.

I liked that the book is easy to understand. However it didn't cover the need I have at the moment but it helped me see that I need to accept that I may not have the solution but God does

Insightful and inspiring

Excellent resource!

Great book that easily explains that God desires to help you no matter what you are facing. I highly recommend as a must read.

A very readable book that made me stop and contemplate common Christian struggles such as Letting God be in charge. I like how the author weaved in Biblical and personal stories as examples. This book made me think, wonder, and gave me hope Positive and powerful read!!!
