Customer Reviews

I just picked up a copy of The Warriors Jailbreak graphic novel. I remembered the classic movie about gangland New York in the 1970s, and I just had to check this out. It's a great book, well written, and as intense as the original film, but with a whole new angle on the story. The artwork by Herb Apon and Todd Herman is exceptionally good. I hope this is just the first of many collaborations from these guys. I can't recommend it enough.

I have been a fan of The Warriors for years. This could be a really good sequel to the 1979 movie. If you're a fan this is a must have item.

Would give 5 if they would have another one to continue excellent continuation of the movie. There should be a whole series.

Disappointed

Have not purchased the Trade Paperback, but will now! I read this series online and it was a great sequel picking up right where the first movie left off. Nice to see some backstory and further development of the characters, especially the turbulent relationship between Swan & Mercy and Rembrandt's backstory. A good read if you are a fan of this urban legend.
