Origin Of Magic (Dragon's Gift: The Protector Book 3)

Synopsis

I thought I knew the world of magic. I knew nothing. By the skin of my teeth, I passed the Vampire Court trials. I'm officially an ally, with the seductive vampire Ares on my side. Everything should be good, except that there's a magical mob boss on the hunt for dragons. Problem is: dragons are supposed to be dead. So what does he know that I don't? It's a race against the clock to save the dragons. But things get dangerous when the mob boss starts hunting me. What was a straightforward mission becomes a tangled web of intrigue and danger. I can only get out alive if I embrace my strange new magic--along with the help of Ares and my friends. Origin of Magic is a fast-paced urban fantasy thriller with a kick-butt heroine, a tough hero, and magic that will blow your socks off.

Customer Reviews

This was great. These books keep giving you more information on what Nix is capable of and that she and her plants are dragons future. Looking forward to the next one. Can't wait for August to go flying by.

This book ended way too soon. There is so much that is happening to the triumvirate that I can't wait for the next installment.

As with the other books in this series, the unknown and the unknown powers begin to rise to the fore. A mild spoiler is the end last paragraph demands that one has to read the next book.

Great story line. Read entire series. Good as a stand alone. Smart characters- not 'wimpy' females.

At times the story dragged, but once the challenge began it was great reading. I did get the feeling I was there.

I don't like a chapter at time being sold as a book - but I do like the story line.

As always you have another great book in your series great characters and story line,Keep up the great writing loved it. Whole set great.
