Customer Reviews

"Michael Feldman's incisive look at Badger State oddities finally allows Wisconsin to merge from the long shadow of beer, cheese, sausage, and more beer. The reader will have to decide whether this is a good thing."--Joe Queenan, humorist and author of Red Lobster, White Trash, & the Blue Lagoon

With Wisconsin Curiosities, popular public radio show host Michael Feldman brings his "deliciously sarcastic" perspective to the subject of his home state. Together with coauthor Diana Cook, he's combed Wisconsin for more than 125 of the weirdest, wackiest, most outrageous people, places, and things the Badger State has to offer. * You'll meet the world's largest talking cow, a man who converted a pickup truck into a tree house, and a man who holds the world's record in cricket spitting. * You'll learn how Highway H becomes 2.5 miles longer in winter, where to find part of the Great Wall of China, and how a fifty-five-ton boulder ended up in the master bedroom of a house. * You'll experience a game of baseball on snowshoes, the Parade of Beef at the annual Beef- A-Rama festival, and National Mustard Day at the Mustard Museum.

Things I never knew about my state! Many things in this book are actually close to my home! Good to know, I can visit them within minutes or within an hour! Great gift idea!

Neat book

Trip will start in this State

The book was great and exactly what I was looking for. Will come in handy for locations to photograph on our annual scavenger hunt.

Now in an updated and expanded second addition, Wisconsin Curiosities by radio personality Michael Feldman (with the invaluable assistance of "Michael Feldman's Whad'Ya Know?" researcher Diana Cook) showcases more than 125 of the most outrageously wacky places to see in Wisconsin. From the world's largest talking cow, to basketball on snowshoes, the annual Beef-A-Rama festival, National Mustard Day at the Mustard Museum, and much more, Wisconsin Curiosities is as fun for armchair travelers to read as it is for curiosity seekers to use as a tour guide. Black-and-white photographs round out the descriptive, entertaining vignettes with easy-to-follow maps.

Always treating his subject with humor and a bit of disrespect, Feldman tackles trivia and oddities found on the roadsides of Wisconsin. An excellent book to keep in the glove box when you're traveling around the state, or to keep in the house for fun reading any time.

Without a doubt, one of the finest guides to the most interesting attractions in Wisconsin.
