Customer Reviews

Although I have never been a fan of Vietnam War books, I was quick to purchase this one since I served with Jim Cameron in the 176th during the same time he was there. In fact I believe we arrived into the company area on the same day. The accounts Jim shares brought back many memories for me in addition to being very entertaining. I'm glad I bought and read the book and I believe it will both entertain and inform all who choose to read it. Reading will give anyone an honest glimpse into the daily lives of those who were involved in the Army helicopter operations in and around I Corp and the Chu Lai and Da Nang areas of operation.

Wonderful book, Mister Cameron. I was a Pelican pilot as well, from November 1969 to November 1970 . As I read the stories, my mind said, "Hey, I was with you on the mission" and "Hey, I remember that crazy naked dude"! Thanks for the memories, my brother. Now as I review my pictures of those young warriors, I thank God for blessing me with such an incredible life, and for knowing such true patriots as yourself. God Bless you, Jim Cameron, and thank you for your service. Welcome home, brother. Larry Dean Stone , CW-4 (Ret) U.S. Army Pelican 17

Read this book in three days. Great reading. I highly recommend this to everyone. Well worth the purchase! Thank you for your service!

It is extremely interesting to hear a Pilot's perspective on the War and daily life in Viet Nam. Thank you for your service and sacrifice.

Jim Cameron makes the Vietnam War a little more personal along with capturing the feeling of being involved in a larger world. His telling the stories may help many who were there but cannot put into words their residue from the conflict.

Great personal accounts and a lot with humor.

It was a very good read. That's coming from someone who hasn't read a book in years. I would definitely Recommend to anyone.

Brought me back to my tours (minus that smell and the humid heat I'll never forget). Well worth the read.
