Customer Reviews

Eli Schleifer was a sports radio talk show host who was also a compulsive gambler, an addiction he fought until his 1991 death. He wrote this book in the early 1970's in conjunction with Robert Temple who typed, edited, researched, fact-checked, rewrote the manuscript with Eli and sent the final product to various publishers without success. Mr. Temple was a sports writer with the "Boston Herald Traveler".

It is not light reading. But. It is awesome reading. You'll feel like your listening to one of the more interesting professors... surprisingly if gambling is not your interest but human behavior is you will still love the book.

Unlike other gambling books that read like text books with figures and facts. Interesting and easy reading by well known respected men in the sport's field.
